Sister: Read My Free Offer!

I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.
If you, my sister, are unhappy because of illness, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents.
If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight about the chest, nervousness, falling or displacing of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feelings along the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast or a general feeling that life is not worth living, I will send you my free ten days' treatment.

Write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Women's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers postpaid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may never see this offer again. Address:

WESLEYAN

Wins Second Game of Southern Trip from University of North Carolina.

CHAPPEL HILL, N. C., Mar. 28.— Wesleyan won a spectacular game from North Carolina Friday afternoon. Peery pitched the first five innings and had the Tar Heels eating out of his hand. Stansbury was substituted and was knocked out of the box in short order and Conwell finished.

The features of the game were the pitching of Peery and home runs by Lambert and Conwell. Score:

BOWLING NEWS

Three Games for Gondoliers.
The Gondolier duck pin team of the City Duck Pin League, won three straight games from the Wells Clothers, the league leaders, in a fast and interesting contest rolled on the Gore alleys last evening.

The contest last evening attracted more attention than usual as the contest last evening just about decided who would win the pennant in the last half of the race. If the Wells Clothers had won a single game they would have won the pennant, while now they are tied with the Donohue and Johnson team for first place.

The Gondoliers and the Great Bowling team are tied for second place and each have three games to roll. Three victories for either team will place it in first place, while two wins will tie them for first place.

BUCKHANNON

BUCKHANNON, Mar. 28.—Dr. Elkanah Mulley, president of Broad-street, will preach in the First Baptist church here Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Dr. Mulley is well known among the Baptist people and has the good will of the students and faculty of the college. He is an interesting speaker and all who fail to hear him Sunday will miss a good sermon.
The pulpit committee has been looking for a suitable pastor to take the place of the Rev. Mr. Robertson, who recently had a call to Cambridge, O. They expect to be able to select one in a short time.

Miss Bernice Ellen Bell, reader and violinist, who gave an entertainment here last year, will be here again soon.
L. W. Bartlett has been appointed postmaster at this place. Mr. Bartlett is spending the winter at Florida. Charles P. Darlington, who has been appointed assistant postmaster, is also in Florida.

Meads street residents have started a movement to have that street extended through what is known as the June Bone land, the grounds of the Main street public school, and the Pinnell property, to intersect with Main street at the corner of the school lot. The owner of the Pinnell lot will give twelve feet of land to the proposed movement. The board of Education has not yet taken action on account of the expense of the proposition. The expense of filling in the swamp land and other expenses of opening the street will be borne entirely by the residents of Meads street.

T. S. Settle, traveling representative of the United States Play-

Mrs. Clark W. Heavener, of Buckhannon, has been appointed treasurer of the finance committee for the preservation of historic spots in West Virginia, by the National Association of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The local company of National Guards has been meeting every night this week. The Buckhannon boys are full of enthusiasm and want to learn to drill as soon as possible in order that when they go on their summer encampment they will not be back of the other troops in drilling. A supply of tents and other equipment has just been received, and the company is doing some very good work.

The Hon. Thomas G. Farnsworth, who has been seriously ill for a long time, is able to be out again.
C. E. Hiner, who is a patient in a Baltimore hospital, is recovering quickly from a recent operation.
Miss Pearl Harper, of Elkins, is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Madeline Hinkle.

Miss Myrtle McCoy, of Sutton, is a guest of Mrs. Forest Farnsworth.
Okey Sutton, of Elkins, is the city attending to business affairs. Mr.
Sutton is a well known insurance man.

BIG DEBT OWED OWED THIS STATE COUNCIL AVERS

Along with Nine Other States
But It Reads Like a Pipe Dream.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS) LONDON, Mar. 28.—Nine southern states of the United States now owe British bondholders a total of more than $75,000,000, not including interest, on account of debts which have been in default from forty to seventy years according to a report of the council of the corporation of foreign bondholders.

This association, organized forty years ago to protect the interests of holders of foreign securities, has for many years had eleven foreign states on its black list but this year the republic of Guatemala, under pressure from the foreign office, has resumed payments after a default extending over fourteen years.

"The elimination of Guatemala," says the report, "leaves the unenviable distinction of defaulters to the republic of Honduras, and nine states of the United States of America, namely, Arkansas, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and West Virginia."

It has not been possible to obtain reliable information with regard to most of these debts, but it is understood that the loans were contracted for public improvements, and do not include Confederate bonds of war debts.

With the exception of Alabama's debt, of which no reliable information is obtainable, the amounts owing British bondholders are estimated as follows:

Arkansas.....	$ 8,000,000
Florida.....	7,000,000
Georgia.....	12,000,000
Louisiana.....	6,000,000
Mississippi.....	7,000,000
North Carolina.....	12,600,000
South Carolina.....	6,000,000
West Virginia.....	15,239,370
Total.....	$75,239,370

Of these debts the report, which is signed by Viscount Goschen, the new chancellor, says:
"It is indeed deplorable that these prosperous and progressive states of the great American union take no steps to settle their defaulted debts, and it seems, to say the least of it, an anomaly that the United States should insist on compliance with its obligations by a country like Santo Domingo when so many of the states within its own borders are not observing their own engagements."

"The excuses put forward by these states for non-payment are manifold, but they may be generally classed under three heads:

"(1) North Carolina pleads that her defaulted obligations were contracted while the state was being administered by the federal government after the Civil war. The answer to this, of course, is that the bondholders have nothing to do with differences between the states and the federal government. One or the other must be responsible for the issue of the loans in question, and it is most unfair that the state should refer its creditors to the federal government and that the federal government should refer them back again to the state. Tennessee for many years adopted the same attitude as North Carolina; but the former enough to realize that no state can maintain its position in the world of credit which attempts to justify the repudiation of obligations by excuses which, in the case of individuals, would not be tolerated in any civilized court of law, and therefore came to a settlement with the holders of its bonds."

"(2) Louisiana alleges that there were irregularities of some kind or another in connection with the issue of most of her repudiated bonds. It would, of course, put an end to all credit if a state, on discovery that its own officials had acted incorrectly in the course of the issue of a loan, repudiated all responsibility for the money obtained from the public. There is, however one issue, or part of an issue, known as "baby" bonds, concerning which no even the foregoing excuse can be pleaded. In this case, in spite of the fact that the bonds are expressed on their face to be issued by the state of Louisiana in accordance with the state's constitution, and although they are specially secured on the arrears of taxes collectible by the state, which, it is admitted, were di-

PEABODY

College Adds Nine Persons to Its Faculty among Whom is Dr. Coulter.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Mar. 28.— at the last meeting of the Trustees and president of George Peabody College for teachers, just adjourned, nine new names were added to the faculty list, as follows: Carter Alexander, Ph. D., Professor of School Administration; Lulo O. Andrews, A.
M., Associate Professor in English; John Lee Coulter, Ph. D., Professor of Rural Economics; Kary C. Davis, Ph. D., Professor of Agriculture; Fletcher B. Dressler, Ph. D., Professor of School Architecture and Hygiene; Chas. E. Little, Ph. D., Professor of Latin; Robert W. Selvidge, A.
M., Professor of Manual and Industrial Arts; Edward K. Strong, Jr., Ph. D., Professor of Psychology and the Psychology of Education; William K. Tate, A. M., Professor of Rural Education.

West Virginia readers will be particularly interested in the names of Dr. John Lee Coulter and Dr. Fletcher B. Dressler, because of their national prominence.

Dr. Coulter is the most prominent authority in America on Rural Economics. He was Secretary of the American Commission appointed by President Wilson to study Rural the chief author of the report of the commission, the first part of which has just been issued in large octavo volume. He is the author of the bill now pending before Congress, providing for the establishment of Rural Credit Associations in the United States, and which has such a wide support, throughout the country that it will probably pass during this session.

Dr. Coulter has been the special authority on Rural Economics in the United States Census Bureau. He is the consulting expert of the Commission on Industrial Relations.

The name of Dr. Dressler is familiar to all educators in America who are interested particularly in the subject of School Hygiene, School Sanitation and School Architecture.

He has been for a number of years acting as special agent of the United States Bureau of Education in these lines. He is a member of the permanent International committee on School Hygiene. As an author he has produced "School Hygiene," "American Schoolhouses," and a number of most valuable works in this special line.

The West Virginia member of the Board of Trustees, Stuart H.
Bowman, of Huntington, who was for so many years a leading teacher in the state and rendered such great service to education while a member of the legislature and of the state board of education.

The Peabody Normal school, of which the new Central Teachers' College for the entire South is the successor, has many prominent alumni in the state of West Virginia who are greatly interested in the establishment of this new and epoch-making institution. They are watching with the rapid developments with much interest, and many of them are contributing generously to help bring it about.
